THE MILITARY COLLEGE OF THE STATE OF VERMONT

Founded in 1819 Incorporated 1834

U. S. RESERVE TRAINING CORPS
COURSES LEADING TO THE DEGREE B. A. or B. S.

Arts, Chemestry, General Science, Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering and Military Science.

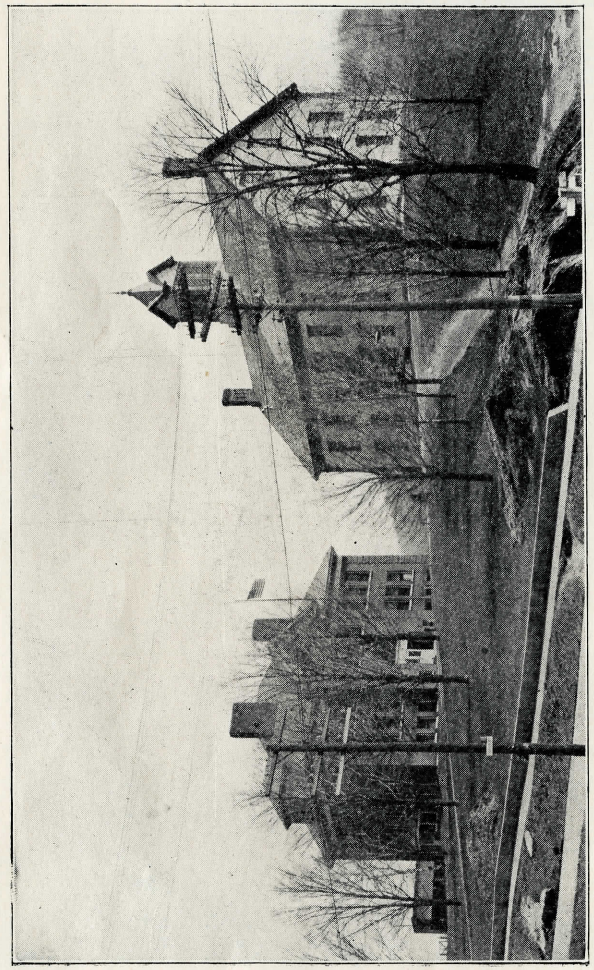

Military instruction, practice and discipline are required of all cadets throughout their stay in the college in faith that a citizen is not fully equipped for his duty to the state unless he is trained for service in its defense as well as for its upbuilding. The story of our Nation's struggles for existence justifies this faith.

The achievments of Norwich graduates sufficiently attest the ability of the system of instruction.

"The liberties of Rome were safe while military information was generally diffused and every Roman citizen considered and felt himself a soldier."—Captain Alden Partridge, Founder of Norwich University.

Northfield High School, Class of Nineteen Thirty

DEDICATION

We, the class of nineteen-thirty do affectionately dedicate "The Rambler" in memory of Weldon Bean (1912-1928) of the class of "30."

A loyal friend
A willing worker
A true classmate

FOREWORD

We, the class of 1930, have prepared and do present this contribution to the history of Northfield High School; hoping that it will keep alive the happy memories of past connections, that it will be helpful to our parents and our school, and make us remember that chapter of our lives passed at our Alma Mater.

FACULTY

The class of nineteen-thirty wishes to thank the faculty for their helpfulness in making us graduates of Northfield High School. We will always remember you as an important link in our life and we shall look forward eagerly to the time when we shall meet you again.

NORTHFIELD HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY

JOHN ERICKSON B. S., PRINCIPAL

Colby 1928

Instructor in Science and Mathematics

"These about him shall read the perfect ways of kindness, justice and honor."

Though Mr. Erickson has been with us only one year as Principal, of his keen ability to instruct, his deep interest in the students and in every department of school work, we can speak only in words of praise and admiration. He is calm and resolute in all undertakings, he has a keen insight in all matters and an unfathomable amount of interest for the welfare of every student. As Athletic Director, he has proven most enthusiastic, and efficient. To all these virtues may be added that he is our steadfast friend in the class room, assembly hall, and at all times outside of school.

MISS MYRTLE A. ROGERS

Assistant Principal

Albany Business College, 1915

Miss Rogers has won the admiration and loyalty of the Class of '30 by her quiet unassuming ways, her ready sympathy and ever helping hand in time of trouble. The Class of '30 know that they will live much better lives and be better young men and women as a result of her wise counsel and influence. May she long remain a member of the faculty to guide the erring footsteps of future students of old N. H. S.

MISS GENORA KENYON, A. B.

University of Vermont, 1924

Instructor in English, Algebra, and Ancient History

We gratefully appreciate the kindness and knowledge bestowed upon us by Miss Kenyon during her four years at Northfield High School. We feel that she more or less belongs to our class because she began her duties here when we began our careers as High School students. May she remain a part of N. H. S. for many years to come for such faithfulness as hers as a teacher is to be cherished securely.

MISS ELSIE STEPHENS, B. S. IN EDUCATION

University of Vermont, 1928

Instructor in Advanced Algebra, Geometry, Commercial Arithmetic and Civics.

Miss Stephens' second year at N. H. S. has but proven to us what a loyal friend she has been to us both in school and in our social functions. She has done her utmost in aiding us in difficult undertakings with the same cheery attitude that has won our hearty appreciation.

MISS MOLLIE ROOSEVELT SELTZER

Colby 1926 B. A.

Head of English Department

Vim! Pep! Energy!

Speed! Action! Results!

These are the passwords of our instructor in English. The class of 1930 have recognized the exceptional personality and ever present wit found in her. Also, outside of the classroom, she is present in social events and a sure booster of the school's activities. We appreciate her efforts in developing debating, public speaking and dramatics. The class of 1930, one and all, thank Miss Seltzer for her ardent efforts in making us better young men and women.

MRS. H. A. WHITNEY

Supervisor of Music

Ten years private instruction in piano and harmony under Dominique Ducharme, Paris Conservatory graduate, and Emiliano Renaud, pupil of Leschitizky, Montreal. Three years in summer school of University of Vermont Music Department.

Who could have a dearer friend than Mrs. Whitney? She has always given her heartiest support to every school function. Because of her musical selections at close of each year, graduation has always been merry and beautiful, because of her unceasing patience and interest we have taken part in state musical activities which helped to advertise our school. The class of 1930 will always remember her and hopes that she will stay as a member of the honored faculty for many years to come. We extend our sincere appreciation with best wishes for the future.

MISS HELEN DEVINE

Trinity College 1927

Instructor in Foreign Languages

Though Miss Devine has been with us but one year the the class of '30 has found a staunch friend. She has been loyal in all athletic and social doings, always ready and willing to do her share. Being a graduate of our "Alma Mater" she has seemed to be one of us rather than a teacher but she has also filled her duties as instructor of foreign languages and pulled us through the mysteries of French and Latin. May she always be greeted with the same feeling which we hold for her.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 6, 1926, forty-six boys and girls started another milestone in education. They appeared at the gates of the High School and after the usual alterations we began our task. Things began to go smoother after the Sophomores gave us a reception, which proved true the maxim of "nothing venture nothing have." In a few weeks, many of us were singing in the chorus, several were playing in the orchestra and some ventured on the basketball floor.

With the coming of the second year, our class though slightly decreased in number, banded together to give the Freshmen a reception that was not soon forgotten. We studied hard, did the usual outside activities, and returned in the fall as Juniors.

This year several of our number were playing basketball, playing in the orchestra, and singing in the chorus. We, in turn, gave our reception and balloon dance, at which time we had an innovation in the form of parting gifts. These were given to the graduates. The girls received perfume atomizers while the boys received cuff links.

We were all greatly surprised and our dignity somewhat lowered when we were awarded front seats in the Assembly Hall for our Senior Year. In spite of this seeming affront some of the best players on the basketball team were members of the class. Several of the Thursday morning chapel exercises were sponsored and aided by Senior declamations and plays. The Senior play given in the local Armory was a great success, and the principals in the Operetta were mostly Seniors.

A little work, a little play, many friends, and established ideals and ambitions have left their mark on us during our four years' happy sojourn here at N. H. S.

Joan Belanger

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Girl's Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses"; 'Riding Down the Sky"; "Engaged by Wednesday"

Kind, sympathetic and sincere, we have often profited by Joan's helpful advice. The girl with the titian blond tresses and rainproof waves, is a lover of nature and travel.

The Class of 1930 will long remember her sunny disposition and cheerful outlook on life. As a Class, we wish you a goodly measure of success. May others benefit by your pleasing personality as we have

Alice Berry
"Billie"

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Girls' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses", Chorus "Riding Down the Sky," Chorus; Engaged by Wednesday, Principal.

Is that so, Nothing doing.

Alice believes that persuasion is better than force and as a consequence can be heard daily, arguing her point. She is resourceful and always trying her best to put a thing through. Alice has certainly been a welcome addition to the class of 1930 and we all join in a hearty manner in giving her our best wishes for continued success. And, Billie" don't forget your friends in Northfield High School.

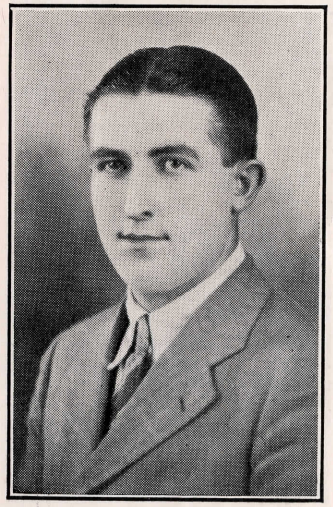

Leona Bussiere
"Zick"

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Girls' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses", Chorus; "Riding Down the Sky," Chorus; "Engaged by Wednesday;" Secretary and Treasurer (2); Associate Editor of Rambler.

"Gee Whiz!"

This demure maiden has won the hearts of the class of '30 by her quiet dignity and ladylike manners. However serious she may seem, she is a highlight in all social activities. Her hobby is "Zick;" her ambition, art. She is often heard discussing her studies at Norwich. We all know that if Leona follows the same principles as those she has taken heretofore, she cannot help but succeed in life.

Eugene Cleveland
"Gene"
1st. Honor

Honor Roll (1, 2, 3, 4); Boys' Glee Club (4); "Riding Down the Sky" Chorus; Winner G. A. R. essay contest 1928; Senator Edmunds Contest (2) (3).

Gene has attended school under many difficulties but he has conquered all obstacles which lay in his path. We feel assured that the same perseverance which has carried him through N. H. S. will insure his success. May his future adventures be as prosperous and happy as his former ones have been hard and profitable.

Orletta Cook
"Orca"
4th Honor

Chorus (1, 2, 4); Honor roll (1, 2); "Penny Buns and Roses", (Chorus); "Riding Down the Sky", (Mandolin Chorus); Police-marshal.

With a smile on her face,
she is not out of place
For a smile will go many a mile.
When a scramble takes place
at the end of the race,
A smile is on top of the pile.

This is Orletta, because she has a smile for all and is always willing to help in every way as a reliable friend and classmate. We feel that in her career as a nurse, with this cheerful disposition, she will surely succeed.

Alba Daneluzzi

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Riding Down the Sky,"; Basketball, (4); Debating Team, (4).

Alba is the "Live-wire" of the school—always to be found wherever there is anything doing. She is in every way an optimist. She has proven her efficiency as a Spanish dancer, basketball player, speaker, and in other activities. Alba has always seemed unusually interested in "Carrs," especially "old Fords."

May she always be as full of life and cheerfulness as she has been in the past.

Philomena Demasi
5th Honor

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Girls' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses;" "Riding Down the Sky."

Here we have a girl of quiet reticent manners and serious attitude toward life. By her diligence and hard work she has attained a high standing in her school work. She is always ready to accept her share of the burdens without a murmur and faithfully to perform her part in helping others.

We are certain that her pluck and perseverance will carry her to the top of the ladder and we heartily wish her the success she so rightly deserves.

Christina Denny

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Orchestra (2,3,4); "Penny Buns and Roses"; "Riding Down the Sky," Principal; "Engaged By Wednesday"; Song Leader, (2); Secretary and Treasurer, (4); Vice president (3).

"List a moment, do you hear the sound
Like water running over the ground?
'Tis Christina, our Music Queen."

'Tina always has a pleasant smile and sunny disposition; is ever ready to help and puts her whole heart in all that she undertakes. A loyal supporter to N. H. S. whether it be music, cheering the basketball team, or a dance.

Homer Denny
"Joe"
2nd Honor

Boys' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Chorus (1, 2, 3,4); Honor Roll (1, 2, 4); Class President (2, 4); Class Vice President (1); Basketball (3, 4); Captain Basketball (4); Orchestra (8, 1, 2, 3, 4); "Riding Down the Sky" (Prin.); "Bells of Beaujolais" (Orchestra); "Penny Buns and Roses"; "Engaged by Wednesday"; Editor and Chief of Rambler.

"Still water runs deep"

This may be said about Joe for he is the most modest and unassuming boy in the class. He does not make known his presence but he has a way of winning the hearts of those who know him.

Irene Doney
"Rene"

Chorus (4); "Riding Down the Sky", (Chorus); "Penny Buns and Roses ", (Chorus).

One of the smallest and cutest girls in our class—as well as the sponsor of the latest styles.

Although small in stature we cannot apply the maxim "Seen but not heard" for she never has enough time to converse with her classmates. She is a loyal supporter at the basketball games and all social functions.

Irene is fond of sports especially a certain kind of "Chase."

May she enjoy her future underktakings as well as she does "sports."

Lillian Erskine
We-ll!

Did someone drawl that out just a bit sarcastically? It must have been Lillian, since that is her pet expression.

Quiet, still, and dignified in school—at a dance she is full of pep. Who can explain this untoward behavior? All who know Lillian proclaim her a good sport and a real pal.

May she have the best of luck in whatever she attempts in the future.

Lily Hardaker
"Heartbreaker"

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Girls' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Orchestra (2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses," (Orchestra); "Riding Down the Sky"; "Engaged by Wednesday"; Associate Editor.

"Oh Gee!"

Lily never fails to greet her many friends with a pleasant smile and a few ch eery words. Although quiet, dependable, and ladylike, she is always ready for a good time. No matter how cross she tries to be, her sunny smile always ends it.

She has proven herslf a valuable asset to the class of "30" and we are sure she will prove the same in any future enterprise.

Helen Hill
"Gyp"

Honor Roll (2, 3, 4); Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Girls' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses"; "Riding Down the Sky"; "Engaged by Wednesday"; Song Leader (3, 4); Debating (4).

"Oh, I'll tell you."

Helen is always ready to show her skill in anything we ask of her. Whether it is dramatics or debating, we are never greeted with a refusal. She is a loyal classmate and a faithful supporter in all school activities. We wish her a happy future and are confident that success will be hers because, "the world belongs to the willing and the energetic."

Edith Kirkpatrick

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); "Bells of Beaujolais"; "Penny Buns and Roses"; "Riding Down the Sky."

"Yes, but why?"

Quiet, unassuming Edith works faithfully at any task, doing it with the best of her ability. Though not especially active in the social activities of the school, we know she is a true friend and a loyal member of the Class.

Good luck to you, Edith.

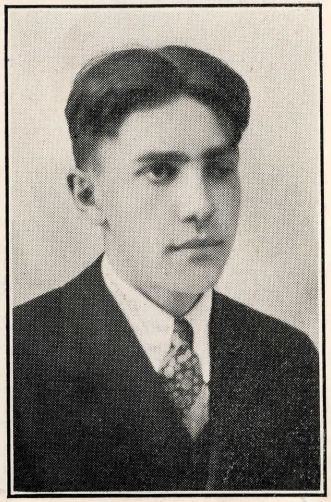

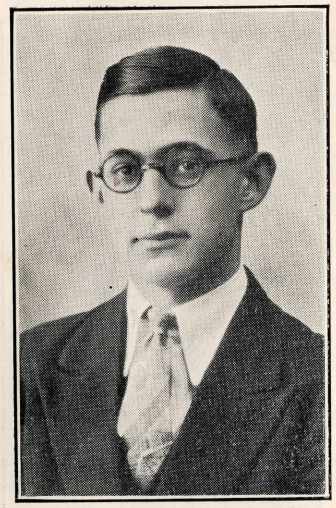

Davis Legier
"Dave"

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Boys' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses," (Chorus); "Riding Down the Sky," (Chorus); Engaged by Wednesday (Stage Director).

"Give thy thought no tongue."

In Dave we have a true stoic; he never complains, but takes things as they come. Although Dave says little in the classroom, his good nature is outstanding. His attempts to translate Virgil are the despair of his teacher. But as Dave takes all bumps in a Spartan manner, we are certain that he will make good in anything, and we sincerely wish him all the success which he truly deserves.

Howard Lewis
"Bug"
3d. Honor
"You Would"

Honor Roll (1, 2, 3, 4); Chorus (1, 2, 3,,4); Boys' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Debating (4); Cheer Leader (4); Class Treas. (3); "Riding Down the Sky," (Chorus); "Engaged by Wednesday" (4).

Bug is the latest edition of flaming youth.

By those various remarks of sarcasm from his caustic tongue have left us dazed, but this same ability has served him well in debating. It is rumored that he is seriously considering a career along the lines of farming. But whatever his goal is, the class of 1930 wish him everlasting success.

Mary Morrill

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Orchestra (1, 2, 3 4); "Riding Down the Sky," (Prin.); "Engaged by Wednesday;" Police Marshal (4).

Mary is one of our jolly students who is ever willing to help, has a true school spirit because she does duties quickly and thoroughly, and is a loyal supporter of all school activities. She finds time to play the violin in the school orchestra and take part in school plays which shows that she has learned what one essential of happiness is: Work.

We are sure Mary will be successful.

Viola E. Osgood
"Vi"

Chorus (4); Glee Club (4); "Riding Down the Sky"; "Engaged by Wednesday'; Debating Club (4).

I'd hate to tell you"

A group of girls, a bubble of laughter and in their midst you'll find Viola. Although she has been with us only one year we have found in her a good sport—always ready to help in all activities whether it is debating or singing. If you want to know the words to a new song, ask Viola, she will know it.

May she always be the same happy "Vi" she has been through High School days.

Marian Porter
"Dickie"

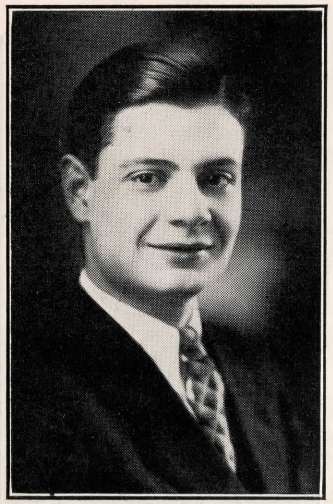

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses"; "Riding Down the "Sky;" "Engaged by Wednesday."

"Well—?"

In this charming young miss the dignity of the Senior class is personified. She is con scientious with her own affairs and work. Her melodious voice may be heard in many an entertainment.

We know that these rare qualities, combined with her cheerful disposition, pleasing personality, and versalility, will insure her success in her chosen field of life.

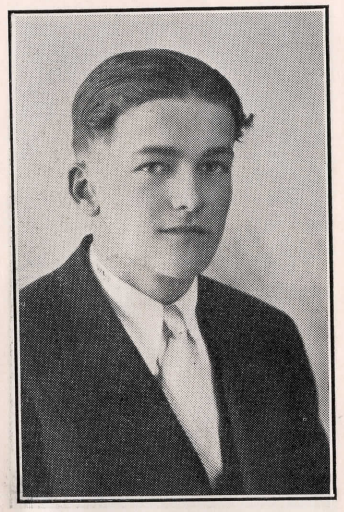

Randall Sherman
"Lum"

Chorus (1, 2, 3,4); Boys' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Honor Roll (1); Basketball (3, 4); Manager Basketball (3, 4); Debating (4); "Penny Buns and Roses"; "Riding Down the Sky,"(Prin) "Engaged by Wednesday"; Vice President (2, 4); President (3); Business Manager of Rambler; Head Marshall.

"Gee Whiz!"

Randall is the most obliging person in the class and stands ready and more than willing to help a friend who needs just the sure and efficient workmanship of our "Lum."

He has made good on the basketball team and when "Mr. Sherman"—ahem—is around, something is sure to pop.

Ralph N. Smith
"Rosy"

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Boys' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Riding Down the Sky," Chorus; "Engaged by Wednesday," (Prin.).

If you are looking for an all around fellow, with a genial spirit, look up Rosy.

We have found a great friend in him. His motto is, "I'll" Try." His welcome smile, cheery disposition and comradeship have given him a lasting place in our memory.

We feel assured that he will be successful in whatever paths he may stray.

Ruth E. Steele

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Girls' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Marshal (3); "Penny Buns and Roses," (Chorus): "Riding Down the Sky," (Prin.); "Engaged by Wednesday"; Secretary of the Rambler.

Here's the smiling Pepita of our class.

Ruth is always there when anyone mentions a good time, being an expert dancer and a lover of all phases of life. Her hands are never still. It's either the 'Click," of the typewriter or she's at the piano playing the latest jazz. Her one ambition is to be a private secretary—yes, very private — employed in the "Smith" Company.

Clara M. Stone

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses," (Chorus); "Riding Down the Sky," (Chorus); "Engaged by Wednesday," (Principal); President (1).

"Original," that's Clara

Although quiet and demure, we have found that she can surprise one with her sudden outburst of wit.

If a difficult theme is to be written, Clara writes it.

If Clara continues throughout life with the same good judgment and loyalty which she has shown during her High School days, we feel sure she will attain a high position in whatever field she may enter.

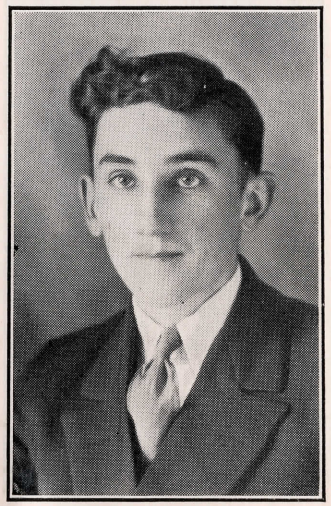

Aileen L. Tracy
"Teddy"

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Girls' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses"; "Riding Down the Sky;" "Engaged by Wednesday."

This classmate's keen sense of humor and belief in casting sorrow aside has helped us through many a dull moment. She is a lover of good times and is ready and willing to participate in work as well as all social functions. At present she seems to be interested in biology, her subject being "Bugs."

Her cheerfulness and enthusiasm joined with her exceptional ability are sure to help her reach her goal.

John Towne
"Johnny"

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Boy's Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Engaged by Wednesday"; "Riding Down the Sky";.

"Well, ain't it?"

Our Class was blessed with the appearance of Johnny, for without his cheery dispositon and his large vocabulary(?) many a class would be dull.

He showed his talent before the footlights in the Senior Play and Thursday A. M. programs and we are sure that he will succeed.

He is quiet at times, but only when he is thinking of something to say. He holds a record for having a ready answer to anyone.

Ruth Woods
"Bunky"

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Girls' Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); "Penny Buns and Roses"; "Riding Down the Sky"; "Engaged by Wednesday"; Basketball (4); Associate Editor of Rambler.

Bunky has proven to be a valuable asset to the class of 1930. Her pleasant smile, dignity, and good school spirit has won her many friends.

She has shown her efficiency as a basektball player, a typist, and a leader in all school affairs. Because of the earnest effort she puts into everything she attempts we know she will be as successful in life as she has been in Northfield High School. Sometimes we think she is destined to travel to "Richmond."

Archie Smith

Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Basketball (4); "Penny Buns and Roses," (Chorus); "Engaged by Wednesday"; Police-Marshal.

"Wait a While"

Behold, a good-natured, happy-go lucky fellow, that's Archie! Because of his hearty fellowship, good temper, and nature to take things as they come he has won a place in every heart. Aside from struggling along with his school work he manages to take occasional trips to the Falls and we think that he has an interest in the "Steele" industry.

May you have good luck and success be yours in what ever field of life you enter.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

After taking a good look at this picture, I am sure that you will agree with us that we never could have really deserved the title of "Rowdy Rooks." However, after we were initiated at the Freshman Reception given by the Sophomores, we were considered "equals" by the upper classmen.

When we again enrolled for our second year under the title of Sophomores, our ranks had lessened, but nevertheless we succeeded in everything we started. The freshman Reception was a huge success and established our possition as a wide-awake class.

This year the Junior Class has had a hand in all school activities: we were represented in the basketball teams, both boys' and girls', in the orchestra; and by several good voices in the chorus. It has also been proven that we have members who are talented in public speaking.

With a smiling face, we the 'Jolly Juniors," are always ready to lend a willing hand anyplace, anyway, and anytime.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

How time flies! Imagine the timid "Rooks" of a year ago being "Sophs" so soon! The eventful day of September 6, 1928 finally arrived and we entered Northfield High School in high spirits, ready for all the fun and studies that old N. H. S. could afford. After a few weeks, we were given, by the present Juniors, a very eventul evening in the form of the Freshman R3ception. Aside from a straw ride to a basketball game in Williamstown the rest of the year passed peacefully and uneventfully.

Then on September 20, 1929, we, as Sophomores, found it our pleasant duty to give the Freshmen a formal reception in the Armory. We considered ourselves especially fortunate in having a girls' basketball team this year. Three of us were on the first team while fifteen were on the squad. Two of our number made the boys' first team while eight were on the squad. Also we feel proud to say that six of our members played in the High School Orchestra. After the operetta, in which we played important roles, we gave a Valentine Party for the school where all had a good time dancing and playing games.

We take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the help our class advisers, Miss Kenyon and Miss Seltzer, have given us during the year.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

After we "Rooks" had become used to the rooms and the ways of High School, a meeting was called to pick class officers. The fifty-two pupils present elected for their class officers the following:

President Donald Beattie
Vice president Allan Sherman
Secretary Wilson Baker
Treasurer Semira Abascal

Our welcome into Northfield High School was by a big reception given by the Sophomores at the Company F Armory. We, as a class, take this opportunity to thank them for the enjoyable time we had.

As Freshmen we have had no chance to show our "stuff," but in the latter part of the basketball season, we featured a ride to Montpelier which took twenty Freshmen.

In the school series of basketball the Freshmen lost all games but it was only on account of lack of experience and not lack of spirit.

To the Seniors with whom we have associated so short a while we extend our heartiest wishes for a successful and happy future.

NORTHFIELD HIGH SCHOOL MARSHALS

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

We are fortunate in having so many girls with fine voices interested in the Glee Club. We enjoyed our work in music very much this year, especially the work on the Operetta and the State Glee Club contest. All are sorry to leave the merry company with which we have sung for four short years.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The boys would like us to believe that they are not so eager to sing as the girls, but the large boys' Glee Club, and the hurrying for their places Friday afternoons, indicates their willingness to be included in the number of singers during the regular music period. Besides this, they showed a great deal of spirit and interest in the Operetta. However, some credit is due Mrs. Whitney there, because of her wise selections of songs which appeal especially to the boys.

THE HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

By last year's graduation we lost two violinists and as we gained no new members this year the orchestra is practically the same.

Under the energetic guidance of Mrs. H. A. Whitney the Orchestra has improved and, as we hope, will continue to do so.

Much time was spent outside of school practicing for "outside" entertainments, for the High Sdhool and Graded School graduation, the special music during the Junior Reading program music between the acts of the Senior play and for the Orchestra Contest, held in Burlington May 10. This is the first time that our Orchestra has ever attempted such an undertaking.

N. H. S. OPERETTA

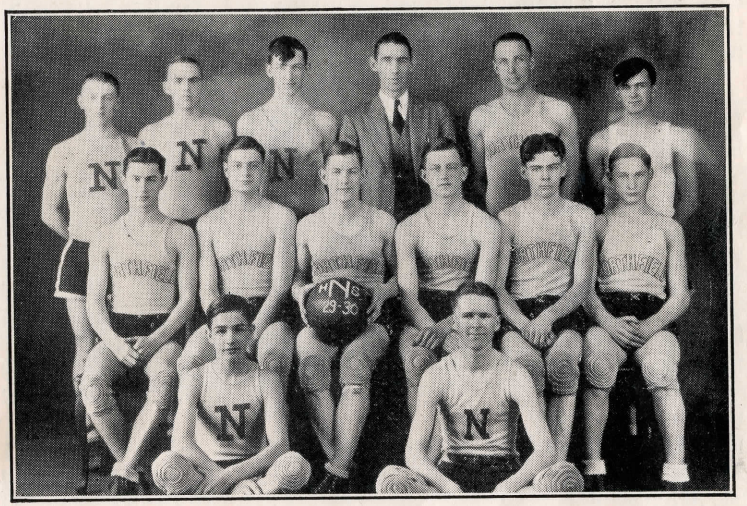

The Operetta "Riding Down the Sky" presented by the N. H. S. Glee Clubs was one of the most outstanding social affairs in Northfield during the winter. The parts were exceptionally well-taken and the principals received deserved commendation in the local papers.

The untiring efforts of Mrs. Whitney and the faculty, together with the cooperation of the Glee Clubs, made the Operetta an unqualified success.

ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL

Due to the interest among the boys and the willingness of Mr. Erickson to coach us, several football practices were held. Mr. Erickson, who was a football star at Colby, showed us some of the fundamentals of the game but on account of lack of experience and equipment no games were played.

BASKETBALL 1929-30

About November 21, thirty-five boys eagerly began the long-awaited basketgball practices. All the boys started on a par with each other and the fight for places on the first five was very keen. Seven new uniforms were bought for those securing the first seven places.

The first game was played December 6 with Randolph at Randolph. The boys never "found themselves" and as a result were defeated 17-12. Three more losses followed to Spaulding, People's Academy and St. Michael's High. Some hard luck was experienced in these games. Then the team began to "click" and four victories over strong teams followed. Then came two more defeats, three victories and another loss in order. This made a total of seven victories and seven defeats, and thus, due to the fact that almost a whole new team was put on the floor was perhaps surprising to the majority. The boys were possessed with wonderful fighting spirit, always doing their best. All worked hard under the able direction of Mr. Erickson and the boys really deserve credit. We played the hardest schedule ever attempted and not an easy game was played.

The letter men were as follows: Capt. Denny, R. Sherman, A. Smith, W. Holden, L. Karr, M. Howd, J. Diego, D. Comi.

We wish to thank Mr. Erickson for his untiring leadership. He gave much of his time to the team, inspiring us to go out and win, and urging us never to give up. He has helped us tremendously and we wish him to know that we earnestly appreciate his efforts on behalf of us.

The results of the games follow:

TEAM	N. H. S.	OPP
Randolph	12	17
Spaulding	20	22
St. Michaels	16	26
People's Academy	24	25
Waterbury	20	14
Montpelier	17	11
Waterbury	20	17
Randolph	60	15
Randolph Aggies	21	27
Spaulding	13	37
People's Academy	31	30
Randolph Aggies	16	7
Montpelier	19	14
St. Michael's	15	21

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Mr. Erickson also took charge of girl's basketball and under his leadership much imporvement was manifested. The girls won only one game out of nine but this was to be expected because nearly all the girls had never had a basketball in their hands before. Also they played with teams far out of their class but always fought hard whether they were badly behind or ahead. Mr. Erickson coaching has influenced them and next year it is expected that a better team will be had as only one member of the first team graduates.

Letters were awarded to the following girls: Capt. Messier, L. Pando, R. Woods, R. Allen, R. Willette, S. Abascal, A. Daneluzzi, E. Johnson.

SCHOOL NOTES

On Friday evening September 20, the class of '33 was introduced to their new friends and the faculty by a reception given by the Sophomore Class. A reception lasted from eight until nine o'clock. Members of the School Board, the Faculty and Class Presidents were in the receiving line. Dancing followed the reception and lasted until 12 o'clock, with the Cadet Orchestra furnishing the music.

VALENTINE PARTY

One of the incidents of special interest was the Valentine Party given in Grange Hall, February 14, 1930. This was sponsored by the Sophomore Class and enjoyed by the High School as a whole. Games and dancing were enjoyed and refreshments served. Valentines were distributed.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

Mary Whitney represented N. H. S. in the State Oratorical Contest on some phase of the American Constitution. Her subject was "The Challenge of Our Constitution." The contest was held April 14, in Montpelier. Each speaker gave a 6 minutes' prepared speech followed by a 4 minutes' extemporaneous speech on an assigned topic. Mary won the third prize which was a seventy-five dollar scholarship to the University of Vermont.

THURSDAY MORNING ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

On Thursday morning of each week programs have been presented by the various classes. The programs have consisted of readings, sketches, music, and talks in observance of various occasions.

DEBATING

This year for the first time N. H. S. entered the Vermont State Debating League. The subject for debating was: "Resolved that all Vermont water power projects should be owned and operated by the state rather than by private interests." Although the team was not very successful in winning its debates, the members of the team were a credit to the school in each case. The following took active part in the debates but credit should be given to those who helped make their work possible through assistance of varied kinds: Helen Hill, Randall Sherman, Bruce Morgan, Hillard Seaver, Viola Osgood, Mary Whitney and Howard Lewis.

MAGAZINE SALE

The usual Magazine sale for the purpose of raising money for the Athletic Association was greeted with great enthusiasm among the students. More subscriptions were obtained than from any previous sale by the students. The Classes were divided into two groups and it was agreed that the losing team would present the winners with a party. Accordingly, on Saturday evening, November 16, the Reds, the losing team, presented the Greens with a party. Members of the faculty and students attended. Games, stunts, and dancing were enjoyed.

CLASS DAY OF 1930

The Class Day exercises of the class of 1930 were different from those of other years on account of the air of informality which pervaded the program. It was all in the form of a garden party with its appropriate stage setting.

Homer Denny, the class president, acted as host and delivered the address of welcome as customary. The Class history, in the form of a chat over the tea cups was given by Clara Stone and Alba Daneluzzi.

The address to the undergraduate body, in the guise of the Spoon Oration, was given by Mary Morrill with its subsequent acceptance by Roseian Willette, the Junior Class president.

Christina Denny announced the decision of the class in respect to the awards for each member who possessed a superlative attribute or quality. This summary of present abilities and qualities foreshadowed the future activities and interests of the members of the class as presented by Lily Hardaker, Marian Porter and Aileen Tracy. The witches' incantation scene from "Macbeth" was a dramatic and effective means of foretelling the future.

The class poem read by its author, Helen Hill, recalled the party to the actuality of the present. Randall Sherman, as the legal advisor of the class, read the last will and testament. This impressed the audience with the undercurrent of the party.

To recall the groups' spirit from any chance morbidity, Ruth Woods gave "degrees" of a facetious nature to the members of the class to comply with any peculiar and particular characteristics possessed by each. This was followed by the class gifts in the form of "favors" presented by Ruth Steele and Davis Legier. Unlike usual party favors, each one was different, suggested to slam or recall a special weakness or liking.

The class song, whose music and words were written by Christina and Homer Denny, respectively, closed the exercises. The orchestra had played several selections during the above parts of the program and these fitted the jovial spirit manifested by those on the stage.

PLUCK

versus

LUCK

Some people are forever waiting for a stroke of luck to come their way and make them rich.

It's PLUCK not LUCK that makes for success.

Wealth comes to those who work and prepare—to those who are financially ready to open the door when opportunity knocks—not by wishing.

By the way—has that ACCOUNT been started and are you building it so that it will take care of all emergencies and opportunities?

The start is very important

BURDETT COLLEGE

A Business School of Collegiate Grade

Recommends that young people contemplating a business career finish first their high school course, later entering college or business school as their fitness or need may require.

Burdett College is interested in graduates of the Classical, Scientific, General, and Commercial Courses who are farsighted enough to see that a high school education supplemented by additional, more highly specialized training is the best preparation for a useful business career.

For young men Burdett College offers intensive two-year courses of college grade: Business Administration and Accounting—for young women, Executive Secretarial and Normal Commercial Courses. Also specialized Office Management, Bookkeeping, Stenographic and Finishing Courses for those wishing a business training in shorter time.

Distinctive features of Burdett College are: individual attention—able faculty—exceptional preparation—desirable student associates. Students attending come from universities, colleges, leading high schools and academies—sixteen men's colleges being represented in the Business Administration Course alone during the present school year.
